

Blanket/chaser/trace clips look better with a curve at the flank where the hair changes direction.

Along the sides of the horse, a straight clip line does not leave the coat in a straight line if the coat is very long. This is because where it changes direction it 'overhangs' the clip—turn the clippers sideways and level this off.

Finish trace/blanket clips up the side of the buttock.